About the Organizer: BPCA CPE

BPCA is situated in the heart of mega cosmopolitan Mumbai city, which is the state capital of Maharashtra. The college which has been established by the Bombay Physical Culture Association (popularly known as BPCA) in 1978, conducts various programmes in Physical Education & Sports viz. B.P.Ed, M.P.Ed & Ph. D as well as Certificate Courses in Fitness, Yoga & various games & sports. The College has been awarded BEST COLLEGE AWARD by the University of Mumbai for its Academic excellence. Ours is the only college in the state which has faced 4 cycles of assessment and accreditation by NAAC. BPCA CPE invites you to participate in this "International Conference & Global Conclave on Physical Education, Sports Science and Social Wellness."

About the Conference:

The theme of the conference emphasizes the holistic development of individuals and society through the integration of Physical Education, Sports Science, and Social Wellness. In today's fast-changing world, physical fitness, scientific approaches in sports, and social well-being are essential for creating balanced, healthy, and productive communities.

This conclave aims to explore the interconnected role of physical activity, advanced sports science practices, and social wellness strategies in promoting overall health, mental resilience, social harmony, and sustainable development. It highlights the importance of adopting innovative scientific research, promoting mental and physical health through active lifestyles, and strengthening social cohesion for global progress.

The conference will provide a platform to discuss emerging trends, challenges, and solutions in the field, and promote collaboration among researchers, educators, policymakers, and industry experts to shape a healthier and socially responsible future.

Objectives

- To explore and promote innovative research and best practices in Physical Education, Sports Science, and Social Wellness for the holistic development of individuals and society.
- To provide a global platform for academicians, researchers, practitioners, and policymakers to share research findings, experiences, and practical insights.
- To emphasize the role of physical activity, sports, and wellness programs in enhancing physical health, mental well-being, and social harmony.
- To raise awareness about the social and psychological benefits of physical education and sports, fostering mental health, inclusivity, and social cohesion.
- To encourage collaboration between industry, academic institutions, and government agencies for the formulation of impactful policies and programs promoting physical education and social wellness.
